

Section 200 – School Board
School Board Member Conduct
Board Self-Evaluation

File: 202.03

The board of education shall conduct a self-evaluation of the board at the February meeting. The results of the self-evaluation shall form the basis for both short term and long term goals of the school district. The self-evaluation shall also be compared to the philosophy of the school district to determine if the beliefs of the board members agree with the ideals as stated in the philosophy of the school district.
